The exact date from which puja ceased to be performed in this Jagalakadi temple is not ascertainable in the records obtained. The several persons and Mahajans examined simply make mention of the fact that puja has ceased to be performed in the temple.

One Gantlappa is stated to have taken up the cultivation of the wet land belonging to the temple for a rental of Rs 1-4-0, and is reported to cultivate it during years, when the tank water becomes available for irrigating the land.

Detailed details as to how the the balance at the credit of the institution has come up to Rs 33-1-0, are not available in the records. It is the head of Financial Department.

SIR,

In forwarding herewith the vernacular papers received with the Kolar Deputy Commissioner's letter No.A.2.C.1085/31-32 dated 26th December 1931 (copy enclosed) in the matter of the transfer of the inam lands of the Sri Gopalaswami temple at Jogalakasti, Mulbagal Taluk to the Sri Gopalaswami temple at Kannasandra and treating the former as a defunct institution, I have the honor to state as follows:-

The temple at Jogalkasti is a village institution endowed with the marginally noted lands. The dry land is stated to be lying banjar for the last 5 years and the wet land alone is being cultivated. It is reported that the temple is in a very dilapidated condition, that the villagers (mainly Mahomedans) are not willing to effect any repairs to the temple, and that no pooja is being performed to the deity. The Amildar proposes that the temple in question may be declared as defunct and its inam lands transferred to the temple of Sri Gopalaswami at Kannasandra which is only 1½ furlong from Jogalakasti. The villagers have agreed to this proposal. The Deputy Commissioner supports the Amildar's recommendation. As the villagers at Jogalakasti are mainly Mahomedans and there is no prospect of revival of worship in the temple, I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to red to the temple of Sri Gopalaswami at Kannasandra which is 1 furlong off, treating the former institution as a defunct one. The villagers have agreed to this proposal. The Sub Division Officer also supports the proposal of the Amildar. I therefore recommend that the temple of Venugopalaswami at Jogalakasti may kindly be treated as defunct institution and the lands belonging to this temple transferred to the Sri ----- Venugopalaswami at Kannasandra of the same Taluk.
